Chief Judge of Court of Appeals: Administrative duties; power to reassign judges; subject to rules of the Court. Court of Appeals to make rules and regulations for practice and procedure of Courts.	Sec. 18A. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals shall be the administrative head of the judicial system of the State. He shall from time to time require, from each of the judges of the Circuit Courts for the several counties and of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and of any intermediate courts of appeal, reports as to the judicial work and business of each of the judges and their respective courts. He may, in case of a vacancy or of the illness, disqualification or other absence of any judge of the Court of Appeals or of any intermediate court of appeal, or for the purpose of relieving an accumulation of business in any of said courts, designate and assign any judge of the Court of Appeals (if the assignment is to be made to an intermediate court of appeal), any judge of any intermediate court of appeal (other than that to which the assignment is to be made), any judge of any of the Circuit Courts for the counties, or any judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City to sit in any case or cases or for a specified period as a judge of the Court of Appeals or of any intermediate court of appeal (as the case may be) in lieu of a judge of such Court. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals also may designate and assign, to sit as a judge of the Circuit Court for any county or the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City and of any other Court or Courts of Baltimore City which may be
